Welcome to our World

OUR VISION

Inspiring individuals to transform their post-career years into a period of renewal, growth, and meaningful impact.

OUR MISSION

To empower individuals to transition into retirement with purpose, passion, and prosperity.

About Us

At Praxis Sphere, we help individuals transition from a career of impact to a life of passion, meaning, and limitless potential.

As the premier destination for retirement lifestyle and transition planning, we go beyond finances to focus on what truly matters—your mental well-being, social connections, personal growth, and lifelong fulfilment. Because retirement isn't just about what you leave behind—it's about what you're stepping into.

With Praxis Sphere, your retirement can be:

- * Purposeful Planning – Craft a clear vision for your future beyond just leaving work.
- * Financial Freedom – Build a solid financial foundation for a stress-free retirement.
- * Social Fulfilment – Engage in enriching relationships and experiences.
- * Continual Growth – Embrace new opportunities to learn, explore, and thrive.

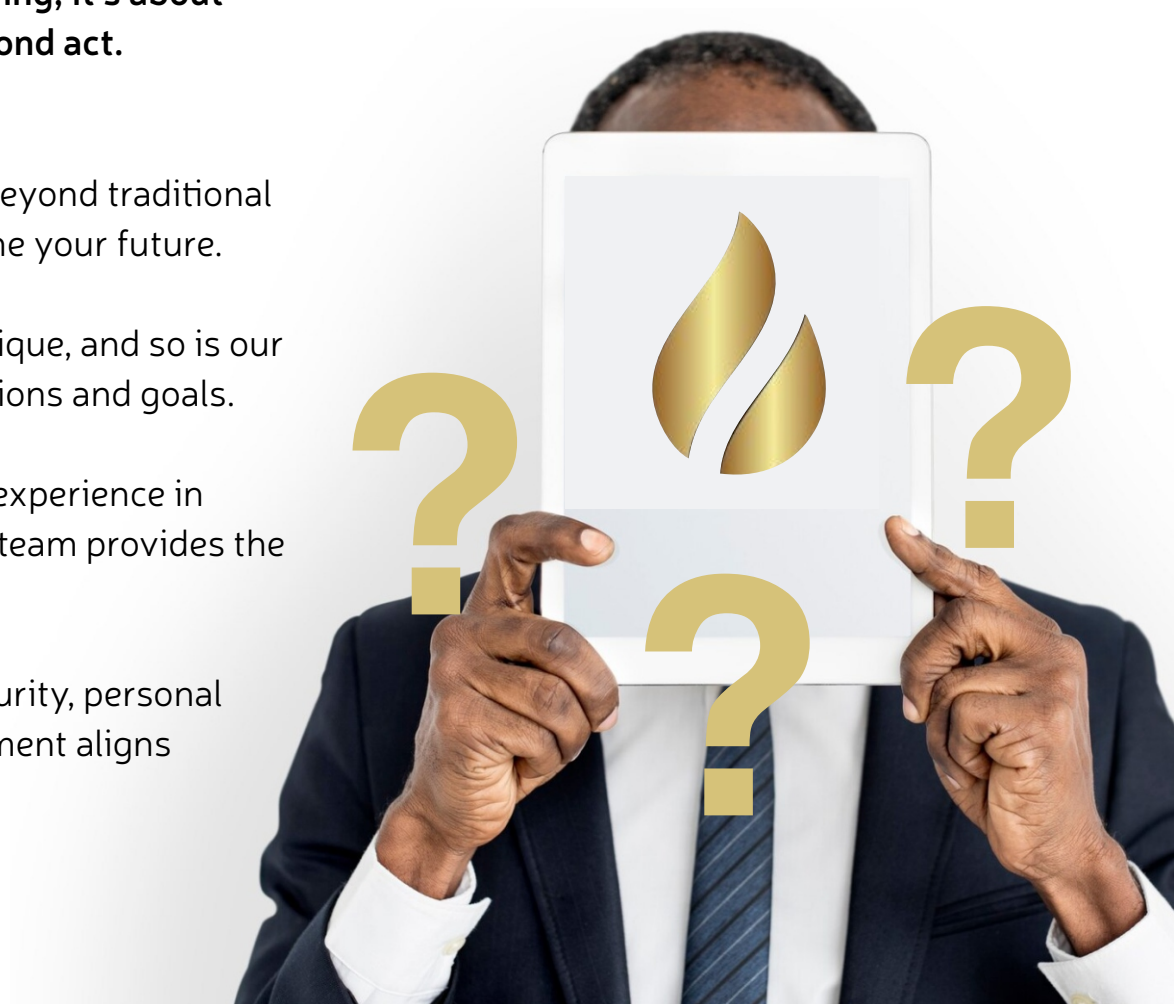

Your next chapter should be as extraordinary as the life you've built. Let Praxis Sphere help you craft a retirement that's not just fulfilling—but truly remarkable.

Meet the Founder

With over three decades of experience across central and commercial banking as well as upstream oil and gas industry, Abdullahi Jibrin Ahmed is a highly accomplished executive and a trailblazer in his fields. His visionary leadership and steadfast commitment to excellence have left a profound and lasting impact on these industries.

Abdullahi earned a BSc in Accounting from the University of Jos and honed his expertise through extensive training both locally and internationally. As a certified Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) practitioner and an Emotional Intelligence expert, he combines strategic insight with behavioural transformation techniques to help professionals craft rewarding and meaningful post-career lives. His guiding principle? Retirement should signify renewal, not retreat.

Abdullahi brings a wealth of knowledge in business operations and financial management. He is distinguished for his skills in planning, forecasting, and problem-solving, as well as his ability to inspire and empower teams to deliver outstanding results. His strong communication and negotiation skills have been instrumental in fostering influential relationships and driving impactful initiatives.

Throughout his illustrious career, Abdullahi has consistently achieved excellence in financial stewardship, regulatory compliance, government relations and business continuity. His adaptability to evolving market conditions has cemented his role as a catalyst for innovation and organizational transformation.

“Retirement should be a time of renewal, not withdrawal. My mission is to help professionals transition into this phase with clarity, confidence, and joy.” – Abdullahi Jibrin Ahmed
